A Message from Monsignor Bob

As we gather this weekend, the Lord once again speaks about the things that truly matter in life, all of which are rooted in faith. In the passage from the Letter to the Hebrews we hear a very different definition of faith: "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." The author then goes on to give us the example of living that faith in the life of Abraham and reminds us of the importance of being obedient to the will of God. That does not seem to ring true in the world in which we are presently living! We have become a people who want to do whatever we want whenever we want. Where does that attitude take us? It takes away from what the Lord is asking of us. God is not a taskmaster; He is a loving God who only wants us to be happy and at peace with ourselves and others by following the path He has set for us. Here is Abraham who is called to be the "Father of our Faith" accepting God's will for him. He set out on the journey set for him by God speaking about what God wants for His people. He faced criticism, alienation and even disappointment, but he kept moving forward as God called him. He was then put to the test about his commitment to the Lord. He was asked to sacrifice his own son as a sign of that promise he made to God. Before he slayed His son, God called out to him and his son's life was spared because of the obedience of Abraham. That is why Jesus tells us: "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom." He goes in to tell us to put aside those things of the world and embrace the kingdom He established for them. He simply says: "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." How true that is in everything we choose in life. Are our choices rooted in faith or in seeking what the world tells us is important? He provides a parable to help us understand the point He is making about material things. "Who then is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time? Blessed is that servant whom his master finds doing so. But if that servant says to himself: My master is delayed in coming, and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat and drink and get drunk, then that servant's master will come on an unexpected day and at an unknown hour and will punish that servant severely." What price do we pay for failing to follow the obedience to which we have been called as Christian believers? The closing line of that Gospel is an important reality for those of us who do believe and work to live our faith. "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." We have all been gifted by God with all we truly need to not only be at peace in this life but also to know the peace that is waiting for us in the next life. So before making choices in life, let us remind ourselves of what Jesus said: "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

Once again, I want to extend thanks to all of you who expressed your condolences at the death of my youngest brother, Thomas. He was a very gifted young man. Sensitivity is a two edged sword; a gift and a curse and Tom was extremely sensitive to others. In listening to his clients at the reception following his funeral, person after person told me how caring Tom was to them. The night was different however. The darkness of night covered him with darkness, from which it became too difficult for him to see the light of the next day. Depression is as serious an illness as any other condition or disease. My hope is that being so open and public about his death will remind us of how deeply depression can affect our lives and help us grow in our understanding of this mental illness and be more sensitive to those who suffer from it. We say thanks for your sympathy, your prayers, your kind thoughts, Mass cards, candles lit in his memory and your many kindnesses. Special thanks to all those who made contributions to Project 2022 in Tom's memory. Family was very important to Tom and this shrine is dedicated in honor of the gift of family life.

We'll go the extra mile.
Maybe you've never considered our funeral home because you think it's too far.
Our service, attractive facility and affordable prices will make it worth the trip.
After all, why would you go the extra distance for anything less?
There's a reason you should, too.
