A Message from Monsignor Bob

This week we begin what is referred to as “Ordinary Time”. What exactly does that mean for our liturgical celebrations? Because the term ordinary in English most often means something that is not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces that impression. Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting. This season is called ordinary not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word “ordinalis” refers to numbers in a series which stems from the Latin word “ordo” which translates order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church, the period in which we live our lives neither feasting (as in Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ. It is appropriate that the Gospel for this weekend features John the Baptist’s acknowledgement of Christ as the “Lamb of God”. For us, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There is nothing “ordinary” about that! The normal liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green. Green vestments have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the period in which the Church founded by the Risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and spread the Gospel to all nations. Ordinary Time refers to all those parts of the Catholic Church’s liturgical year that are not included in the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter. Ordinary Time encompasses two different periods in the Church’s calendar, since the Christmas season follows immediately after Advent and the Easter season immediately follows Lent. The Church year begins with Advent followed by Christmas, Ordinary Time begins on the Monday after the first Sunday after January 6, the Feast of the Epiphany, and the end of the liturgical season of Christmas. The first period of Ordinary Time runs until Ash Wednesday when the liturgical season of Lent begins. Both Lent and Easter Seasons fall outside of Ordinary Time, which resumes again on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday, the end of the Easter season. The second period of ordinary Time runs until the First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of another liturgical year. In any given year, there are either 33 or 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time which terminate on the Feast of Christ the King. So Ordinary Time is not just a filler between the great feasts our Church celebrates. It is a season for living and reflecting on the messages those feasts hold for us as believers in Jesus Christ.

BISHOP CAGGIANO TO MEET WITH PARISH LEADERSHIP THROUGHOUT THE DIOCESE OF BRIDGEPORT

In order to continue preparations to inaugurate a new vision of evangelizing, Bishop Caggiano is hosting local parish leaders in a series of meetings scheduled in January, February, and March throughout the diocese. The Bishop’s office has announced meeting dates, times, and places for these meetings with parish Pastoral Councils, Finance Councils, Trustees, Catechists, Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Ambassadors, and Synod Delegates. The Bishop’s talk is in response to the National Eucharistic Revival as we seek to understand the challenges we face in passing on the faith to our youth. “At the heart of the presentation will be an explanation of a new vision of evangelization and catechesis. This new vision challenges us to focus on the different ways people encounter the person of Jesus Christ and the many who accompany others on the path to missionary discipleship,” said Bishop Caggiano in his invitation letter. “We seek the renewal of the family as first witnesses of the faith and rebirth of the parish community as the incubator where faith is nourished and people are transformed. This renewal will lead us to explore even more deeply the central mystery of the Eucharist and the paramount importance for every disciple to attend Mass each Sunday.”

In a letter to pastors, the Bishop said the purpose of these meetings is “to offer a comprehensive presentation of the challenges we face in passing on the faith to our youth and young adults, to offer the vision of evangelizing catechesis as our response to those challenges and to outline their respective roles in implementing this new vision.” Bishop Caggiano continued, “As we begin this historic initiative, allow me to express my gratitude to all those who will participate in this important work.”

St. Rose School is seeking a long term substitute teacher to cover for maternity leave beginning mid to late January through the end of the school year. Please send resume and inquiry to principal@srles.com or call 203-426-5102.

We look forward to celebrating Catholic Schools Week January 29 - February 3, 2023 with a variety of activities that highlight the benefits of the stellar academic, faith focused curriculum.

A heartfelt THANK YOU to our generous donors. We have a rich history and a bright future because of the MANY people who give of their time, talent, and treasure. Fundraising is an integral part of keeping Catholic education alive because tuition alone does not cover the cost of educating every child. Blooms Fund :: St. Rose School (stroseschool.com). Checks can be mailed to St. Rose School, 40 Church Hill Road, Newtown, CT 06470, attn. Advancement.

Have you added your family name to the St. Rose School Brick Garden? This is a great way to celebrate sacraments, graduation, weddings or to remember loved ones. It's also a fundraiser for the school. Orders placed by March 1st will be installed late Spring. The Brick Garden is located across from the main entrance of the school by the Angel of Hope statue. Visit Welcome to St. Rose of Lima School Website (polarengraving.com) to place an order.

We'll go the extra mile.
Maybe you've never considered our funeral home because you think it's too far.
Our service, attractive facility and affordable prices will make it worth the trip.
After all, why would you go the extra distance for anything less?
There's a reason you should, too.
