SAINT ROSE CEMETERY

The cemetery is located on the corner of Cherry and Black Cherry Streets in Sandy Hook. For more information contact the Office.

Bethany Mass

Our parish family will always remember in our hearts and minds those persons who have gone on to the heavenly banquet. On Saturday, April 1st, at the 4:00 PM Mass, we celebrate in a special way Mary Marchese, Mary Thibdeau, Thomas Cassin, Domenick Tramontozzi, John Bazzoni, and Patricia Layda whom we have served during the past month. Although we miss their physical presence among us, we rejoice that they are with the Lord. We also want their families and friends to know that we are here to support them. Please continue to pray for all our deceased, their families, and their friends.

A Message from Monsignor Bob

The very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and strewed them on the road. The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord: hosanna in the highest."

And so, the final journey begins as Jesus enters Jerusalem and prepares Himself for His suffering and death. How ironic that he is greeted as someone royal with loud shouts of "Hosanna" and palm branches waving Him through the roads. So many had heard of Him and the miracles He performed. They were anxious to not only see Him but listen to Him. As always, He responded with love and humility knowing what was ahead of Him. He continued His journey already knowing what was in the minds of those greeting Him.

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me," In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Before He enters into His passion, He desires one last gathering with His disciples to celebrate the Feast of Passover in the upper room. He gives them His Body and His Blood as a sign of remembrance of His love for them and all humanity for all the ages to come. He instituted the Holy Eucharist and priesthood, gifts that would continue to keep His life alive among us. His betrayer was there as well....He knew in short course that he would be betrayed, arrested, denied being known by those closest to Him and suffer a horrible persecution at the hands of those threatened by His love. He went to the garden and prayed.

Take him away, take him away! Crucify him. There was a vessel filled with common wine. So they put a sponge soaked in wine on a sprig of hyssop and put it up to his mouth. When Jesus had taken the wine, he said: "It is finished." And bowing his head, he handed over the spirit.

It was ironic that the crowds who only a few days before were shouting "Hosanna" as He entered the city were now screaming "Crucify Him!"

How fickle we can be! The shouts of hate continued as He was mocked, beaten, humiliated, and despised. He never turned back or turned away knowing that this was the only way He could bring salvation and hope to a people broken and laden with guilt from their sins. He died. People wept, the earth shook, the authorities began to question themselves, but it was too late. It was over. He was buried and all walked away in confusion and disbelief. What had they done?

They heard the crowds say, "Truly this was the Son of God."

On entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were utterly amazed. He said to them, "Do not be amazed! You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here."

But as always, God never abandoned us, and His Son rose from the dead, restoring peace and hope and helping us regain our final destiny as we share in His resurrection.

Where will this week find us? Will we take the time to reflect and remember what each of these holy days means to us as believers in Jesus Christ? It is an invitation in a world that is upside down with so many natural disasters, a war raging in Ukraine, people dying on the streets of our country from gun violence and drugs, thousands of men, women, and children fleeing from the oppression of their countries to find freedom, and people struggling to find their own identity in a world confused to take pause and to ask if we truly understand what Christ endured for us, what a gift the Holy Eucharist is for us and how blessed we know that there is something far greater than this world by sharing in the Resurrection of our Savior. These are not just ordinary days, they are holy days.

Please take a few minutes and check our website or pick up a copy of the Holy Week schedule at the entrances of the church. I know many will be away during the school vacation, but there is always a church nearby wherever you are... do not let these days pass forgotten.

Lenten Programming

EWTN has a wonderful Lenten season of programming on TV and radio! Go to these sites to learn more: ewtn.com/tv/schedule & ewtn.com/radio/schedule

We enter Holy Week joined together in prayer with our school and parish family.

The Lenten Mission is going strong with almost $5,000 raised so far. Thanks to grades K-2 for hosting a tag sale filled with items that were generously donated. This raised $1,500 for the Mission! Proceeds will go to Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth Mission School in Ghana; Grace's Promise, a nonprofit literacy program and Preschool in Uganda started by a SRS Class of 2013 alumna; Faith Food Pantry; and others who are in need in our local communities.

Have you added your family name to the St. Rose School Brick Garden? This is a great way to celebrate sacraments, graduation, weddings or to remember loved ones. It's also a fundraiser for the school. Orders placed by May 1st will be installed in the early summer. The Brick Garden is located across from the main entrance of the school by the Angel of Hope statue. Visit Welcome to St. Rose of Lima School Website (polarengraving.com) to place an order.

THANK YOU to our generous donors. Fundraising is an integral part of keeping Catholic education alive because tuition alone does not cover the cost of educating every child. Every gift makes a BIG difference in the lives of these students who go out and make the world a brighter place. Blooms Fund :: St. Rose School (stroseschool.com). Checks can be mailed to St. Rose School, 40 Church Hill Road, Newtown, CT Attn. Advancement. God bless.

Questions? Contact Cate Gosselin at 203-426-2333 - dre@stroseschurch.comSpiritually Adopt an Unborn Child

Spiritual Adoption is an intention of prayer for those children who are in danger of death in the womb of their mothers. This prayer lasts nine months, usually from the Annunciation to Christmas, and consists of a daily recitation of a decade of the rosary together with a Prayer of Intercession for the child and parents:

Lord Jesus, through the intercession of your Mother, Mary, who gave you birth with love, and the intercession of St. Joseph, the guardian who took care of you after birth, I ask for the unborn child, whom I have spiritually adopted and who is in danger of being killed. Please, give its parents the love and courage to keep alive their child, which you have given it. Amen.

We'll go the extra mile.
Maybe you've never considered our funeral home because you think it's too far.
Our service, attractive facility and affordable prices will make it worth the trip.
After all, why would you go the extra distance for anything less?
There's a reason you should, too.
